RECORD OF DEATHS.

Short Sketches of the Lives of Persons Who Have Recently Passed Away.

MISS HATTIE POWELL.

Miss Hattie Powell, aged 74 years, 1 month, and 6 days, died at her home in Thompson township, Sunday, October 15, 1916. The funeral conducted by her pastor, Eld. C. L. Funk, took place on the following Tuesday, and interment was made in the cemetery at the Tonoloway Baptist church.

Miss Powell was the eldest daughter of the late William H. and Asenath Snyder Powell, and was born in Franklin county, removing to Thompson township, this county with her parents when quite young, and spent the remainder of her days, except the last three years, on the old home farm. She is survived by her brother John and sister Annie—both at home—these two being the last of her father's family.

JESSE L. JACKSON.

Jesse L. Jackson, aged 74 years, died at his home in Ohio, October 15, 1916. Mr. Jackson was a former resident of Brush Creek township. About the time he reached manhood he went west. James R. Jackson, of Brush Creek is a brother of the deceased. He is survived by his wife and nine children.

W. W. LYNCH.

W. W. Lynch, aged 82 years, died at his home in Maysville, Ky., October 9, 1916. Mr. Lynch was a native of Shippensburg, Pa., and a brother of Mrs. Mattie Stoutegale, of McConnellsburg.

From North Dakota.

In writing to have the address of her NEWS changed from St. Paul, to Lisbon, North Dakota, Mrs. Mattie Foreman Davis, states: "I will be remembered by some of the older folks living near Knobsville, as Mattie Foreman. I am a sister of James K. Foreman, at one time a teacher at McGovern's schoolhouse, but during the last several years, a resident of the Philippine Islands. On account of ill health, I removed from my old home near Knobsville to Illinois where I lived eight years; then I spent six years in South Dakota, and then came to North Dakota, where I have spent thirty years. When my brother James visited your town last summer, he ordered the FULTON COUNTY NEWS sent to my address, and it has been a source of great pleasure to me, as I read of the 'old folks at home' and of the changes that are taking place in that part of the country. One of the strangest things to me is the thought of automobiles running up and down those hills and mountains over stones and rough roads. Our roads are level, smooth, and you seldom see a stone. We have had an unusual rainfall this summer, and therefore you run into a mudhole in our roads once in awhile."

No Cabbage Stories.

Mrs. D. K. Orth (Grace Wink), of Portsmouth, Iowa, in a letter written Oct. 19th containing two dollars to advance her subscription to 1918, says: "We are having quite a spell of weather; it is raining and awfully cold this morning. The farmers are busy husking their corn, which is lots better than last year. In some parts of Iowa, the corn crop suffered from the dry weather. The potato crop here is almost an entire failure. Most of the farmers will have to buy potatoes for their own use, and cabbage too. I did not raise a head of cabbage this year. I do not see in the NEWS big stories about Fulton County cabbage this year. What has become of the Pleasant Ridge correspondents?"

Gittens--Bowles.

Mr. Sidney Gittens who grew to manhood in the home of Mrs. Keziah Johnston, in Ayr township, and Miss Sadie Bowles, of Salem, Va., were married in the Episcopal church of that place on the evening of October 11, 1916. A reception in the home of the bride was tendered the bride and groom, after which they left for Mohawk Lake, N. Y., on a wedding trip. Yesterday they visited Mr. Gittens' former home in the Cove. After this week they will be at home to friends in their newly furnished home in Pittsburgh.

Wheat brought $1.62 at Fort Loudon Tuesday.

Makes Good Impression.

One of the really ripping campaigns for congress in this state is being put up by George A. Harris of Fulton county against Benjamin K. Focht, says the Johnstown Democrat. Mr. Harris is tirelessly circulating among the people of the Seventeenth district, and reports indicate that he is making a most excellent impression. He is a man of high standing in his home county and is also well known in state politics, having been active in the reorganization movement and in all the affairs of the Democratic party during recent years. There is a strong belief prevailing among his friends that the Seventeenth will be brought back into the Democratic column by Mr. Harris.

Mr. Howard Garland, son of Amos Garland, and Miss Frances Truax, daughter of Joseph Truax, all near Needmore, were married at the home of the bride, on October 18, 1916, by Rev. C. L. Funk.

Mr. William J. Giffin, near Siding Hill post office, drove to McConnellsburg Thursday of last week paid his subscription to 1917, transacted other business and drove down the Cove to the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Henry Carbaugh and wife, in Ayr township, where he stopped over night.

HOW TO MARK A BALLOT.

To vote a straight party ticket, mark a cross (X) in the square, in the First Column, opposite the name of the party of your choice.

A cross mark in the square at the head of a group of Presidential Electors, opposite name of a party and its Presidential Candidates, is a vote for all electors of that party, but for no other candidates.

A cross mark in the square opposite the name of any candidate indicates a vote for the candidate.

If you desire to vote for a person whose name is not on the ballot, write or paste his name in the blank space provided for that purpose.

A cross (X) in the party square in the first column does not carry a vote for any Judge.

To vote for Judge, mark a cross (X) opposite the name of the candidate desired.
